

The Janet Clemmons/SELF Community Service Award

The late Butler County Commissioner Janet Clemmons founded SELF in 1995. Her legacy lives on through SELF and the many other organizations she touched on behalf of disadvantaged families and people with disabilities. The Janet Clemmons/SELF Community Service Award is presented to an individual who goes above and beyond the call of duty, particularly through volunteer efforts, in working to help Butler County's low-income community.

NOMINATION FORM

Nominee: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Company: _____ Title: _____

Please attach the following information:

1. List any committees, organizations or boards that the nominee is actively supporting.
2. Highlight how this individual goes above and beyond in helping low-income individuals and families in Butler County.
3. Provide a personal statement (no longer than 1 page) on why you nominated this individual.

Name of person making the nomination: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Company: _____ Title: _____

Please send the completed nomination form and attachments to:

Supports to Encourage Low-income Families
P.O. Box 1322
Hamilton, OH 45012
Attn: Kim Weigel